

R^{er} the restaurant & beverage review

july 2009

Outside the office I am as passionate about food as I am about commercial real estate inside the office. And when it comes to my tastes in food, the more interesting, unique, and delicious, the better. One of my greatest hobbies is traveling the area and sampling some of the cities' most delicious concoctions and finest beverages. Each month I will feature a great local restaurant along with one of my favorite beer selections.

Sea Salt Eatery

4825 Minnehaha Ave S
Minneapolis, MN
612.721.8990 | Menu | Website

Located in Minnehaha Falls Pavilion, Sea Salt Eatery has become known for its beautiful location, fun and inviting atmosphere, and great seafood. Voted "2008 Best Seafood Restaurant" by City Pages, it is becoming increasingly known for its unique and delicious addition to summer at the Falls.

My first impression of Sea Salt was that it seemed to be a cross between Como Zoo and Key West: children being pushed in strollers and eating ice cream mingled with people devouring dishes that are seldom seen this far north. Sea Salt's atmosphere seems to be inescapably tied to the Falls: open, fun, and full of memories.

Where: Minnehaha Falls Pavilion, Minneapolis
When: Open April through October
Sunday and Monday 11a.m. to 8 p.m.
Tuesday through Saturday 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.
Cuisine: Seafood, with a few vegetarian options
What to Have: Try the Shrimp or Grilled Marlin Tacos, a Po'boy, or some Crab Cakes
Atmosphere: Open and casual, with all the outdoor fun of Minnehaha Falls in summer
Cost: Ranges from $2.50 to $18.95, with the average meal falling between $7 and $8

Bill's Beverage of the Month

Oberon Ale
Bell's Brewery
Comstock, MI | Website

An American wheat ale brewed with Saaz hops, Bell's Oberon is both spicy and fruity and perfect for summer. Since it's only around March 30th through October, make sure you take advantage of it while it's available!
